September Luncheon Meeting Speaker - Judy Salamacha

On Tuesday, August 2nd, 2016, South Bay Women's Network (SBWN) will meet at La Palapa Mexican Cuisine & Seafood, located at 1346 2nd Street in Baywood Park at noon. Our featured speaker will be Judy Salamacha.

As a recent board member of the Central Coast Maritime Museum Association, columnist Judy Salamacha will explain how 2016 and 2017 will be transformative years for the Maritime Museum of Morro Bay (MMMB). After 21 years of planning MMMB was officially relocated to its permanent address June 2, 2016 and architectural plans are in the works for the first of two buildings at 1210 Embarcadero. Meanwhile, after over 21 years of planning the Maritime Museum of San Diego will collaborate to help build MMMB as part of the maiden voyage of Juan Cabrillo's Pacific Heritage Tour. Public tours on Cabrillo's San Salvador, the first European ship to discover the Pacific coastline, will benefit MMMB between September 30 and October 9th helping to fund the Central Coast's only Maritime Museum and Heritage Park. Salamacha believes this is a legacy project for her and the Estero Bay. Be sure and ask her why? And to study up in advance check out www.morrobaymaritime.org.

SBWN is a non-profit organization open to all women on all job levels and in every occupation that wishes to share ideas, build friendships, and exchange support needed for personal and professional growth. The meeting fee, which includes informative speakers, beautiful venue, networking and lunch, is $20 for members and $25 for guests. For guests reservations and member cancellations please visit our website at www.sbwn.org or email us at info@sbwn.org no later than 12 noon the Friday prior to the meeting. Bring a friend to lunch!

About Central Coast Maritime Museum Association

Working together the Central Coast Maritime Museum Association and the City of Morro Bay can create an interpretive center that will inspire a wave of economic vitality and community pride.

We are striving to construct a Maritime Interpretive Center on the Central Coast. A cornerstone of civic pride and a contributor to the local sense of place, the Central Coast Maritime Museum Association (CCMMA) is increasing the understanding of and respect for the maritime heritage of California. Along with its efforts toward the construction of a Maritime Interpretive Center, CCMMA sponsors visiting tall ships and is preserving vessels of historical value like the tug boat Alma and the classic Monterey-style fishing boat Spindrift.

Shown here is the a plan view of the Morro Bay

Maritime Interpretive Center. Architect Jim Maul has incorporated an outdoor small craft display that will compliment the Interpretive Center. The main building will be just under 1500 square feet in size. The site is located in Morro Bay, California in the Front Street parking area due east of the south T pier. The design of the building combined with the outdoor boat exhibits will convey the feeling of a small coastal fishing town and working waterfront.
